To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to confirm that AV Water Technologies is the only Authorized Distributor for Diehl Metering in the State of Texas.

AV Water Technologies has participated in our training programs, has gained a thorough understanding of our product lines, and carries an adequate stocking level of material to service the water utility industry.

If you should have any questions regarding this topic, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Mike Storm
Director of Sales & Marketing
